OBJECTION TO MAGISTRATE'S
SUPPORT
ORDER-REQUEST FOR CONSOLIDATION

JULY 10, 2017

THIS OBJECTION, being duly filed on July 10, 2017 is in reference to the temporary child support order entered on June , 2017 by magistrate Julie A Dee . Specifically, this Respondent objects to Erie County magistrate Dee asserting subject matter jurisdiction over this matter as the State of Connecticut on February 28, 2017 so ordered that Connecticut has exclusive continuing jurisdiction over the minor child Sophia Couloute as well as exclusive continuing jurisdiction over the Separation/Custody Agreement dated April 23, 2015 which included a child support provision.

Pursuant to Section 580-205 (2) (c) of the New York Family Court Act, magistrate Dee did not have subject matter jurisdiction to make such a determination. Additionally, the minor child was feloniously and against court orders brought to the State of New York, concealed by the mother with assistance from the Petitioner, Patrick Haidon and Attorney Carl Paladino. Finally, this Respondent request that this matter be consolidated, transferred and heard by Honorable Judge LoVallo who is currently hearing and issuing orders on matters directly related to the issues in the above reference support objection.
