LAW OFFICES OF EDWARD NUSBAUM, PC : JUDICIAL DISTRICT of STAMFORD/NORWALK
V. : AT STAMFORD
KAREN RIORDAN : MARCH 15, 2022

PLAINTIFF'S OBJECTION TO DEFENDANT'S MOTION FOR DECLARATORY JUDGEMENT (#108)

The Plaintiff herein objects to the Defendant's motion for declaratory judgment seeking a determination that all of the fees charged by the Plaintiff were unreasonable the specifics of which appear of record. The Plaintiff objects in that the Defendant signed the attached retainer agreement, in which the fees to be charged and the hourly rates were spelled out.

Additionally, the Defendant has paid monies towards fees calculated on the basis on the hourly rates as set forth in the retainer agreement. The Defendant never protested that the legal fees charged were unreasonable during the course of the Plaintiff's representation. To the extent that the Defendant is now claiming that the fees are unreasonable is disingenuous.
