

FBT FA19 5040574

SUPERIOR COURT

JORIZ TIBERI

FAIRFIELD J.D.

v.

FRANK TIBERI

JUNE 30, 2022

MOTION FOR DECLARATORY JUDGEMENT

CGS §52-29

The undersigned moves for declaratory judgement to rule upon the rights of child and mother, the misconduct of the judicial authority, and appointed guardian, with respect to fundamental rights of the child to have hugs from mom, without government interference.

Judge Robert Nastri ruled in May at Hartford family court that a child holds a 'fundamental right' to a parental relationship. See Reich v Reich, HHD FA12 4064290, #486/487. Judge Nastri repeats the opinion of Troxel v Granville, 530 US 57, 65, that parent-child bonds are fundamental liberty interests protected under the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments. The judicial conduct in the instant matter does not recognize the opinions of Nastri, J nor SCOTUS, being cause for demand of declaratory judgement to declare rights of the parties; equal protection notwithstanding.

WHEREFORE, rights be declared.

Joriz Tiberi, Pro Se