ORDER 435698

SAKON, FRANCELIA
V.
SAKON, JOHN A

JUDICIAL DISTRICT OF HARTFORD
AT HARTFORD

12/8/2021

ORDER

All Parties Present. Plaintiff Counsel Present.

The following order is entered in the above matter:

ORDER:

The court has reconsidered the defendant's oral motion for continuance after being provided medical documentation.

The court makes the following ruling.

The court grants the defendant's oral motion for continuance and shall make accommodations as follows: the remaining days of trial shall continue in half day morning sessions.

If the defendant's health status changes, he must inform the court.

The court hereby seals the Court's Exhibit A: Defendant's Medical Letter.

Judicial Notice (JDNO) was sent regarding this order.

Encounter Date: 1/6/2022

To whom it may concern,

My patient, John Sakon, is followed here for severe coronary artery disease, and under stressful situations, can experience angina. He reports a recent increase in his requirement for nitroglycerin, which is worrisome. Please adjust his court schedule in an attempt to reduce this stress. I recommend sessions of no more than half days at a time.
